More than 10,000 graduates
since 1990.

Students from more than 40 countries.

Close to 90% succes
ratio of university admissions.

As an EU member state, automatic recognition based on harmonized minimum training requirements for sectoral professions (doctors, nurses, dentists, veterinary surgeons, pharmacists and midwives) is provided.

Students completing our credit-bearing pre-professional programs can continue their studies worldwide but most of them aim at the following programs in Hungary:

- Semmelweis University Budapest (Medical, Dental, Pharmacy and Health Sciences Faculty)
- University of Szeged (Medical, Dental, Pharmacy and Health Sciences Faculty)
- University of Pécs (Medical, Dental, Pharmacy and Health Sciences Faculty)
- University of Veterinary Medicine, Budapest (Veterinary Medicine)
- McDaniel College – Budapest Campus (BA in Business Administration & Economics, Communication, Political Science & International Studies, Psychology and Art History & Studio Art)

“One of the biggest advantages to studying in Hungary is its Old World approach to medical education, [...] medical students in the country are in contact with patients at an earlier stage of their studies than many of their peers and have more hands-on practice in disciplines like pathology and anatomy.”

The New York Times
